1 2 3 4 5 6 7 The Honorable Magistrate J. Kelley Arnold 8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT 9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON AT TACOMA 10 JAMES Q. WILKINSON, NO. C05-5656 JKA 11 Plaintiff, 12 DECLARATION OF DEVON SCHRUM v. 13 ELDON VAIL, et al., 14 Defendants. 15 I, DEVON SCHRUM, make the following declaration: 16 1. I have knowledge of the facts herein, am over eighteen years of age, and am 17 competent to testify to such facts. I am not a party to this lawsuit. 18 2. I am the Grievance Program Manager in the Office of Correctional Operations, 19 Washington State Department of Corrections (DOC), located in Olympia, Washington. My 20 official duties include responding to questions regarding the inmate grievance program 21 statewide, reviewing grievances appealed to Level III, reporting to courts and DOC officials on 22 the status of the grievance program, and other duties related to this program. I have held this 23 position since April, 2006. 24 3. The Washington Offender Grievance Program (OGP) has been in existence 25 since the early 1980's and was implemented on a department-wide basis in 1985. 26

- 4. Under the OGP, an offender may file a grievance over a wide range of aspects of his/her incarceration. Inmates may file grievances challenging 1) DOC institution policies, rules and procedures; 2) the application of such policies, rules and procedures; 3) the lack of policies, rules or procedures that directly affect the living conditions of the offender; 4) the actions of staff and volunteers; 5) the actions of other offenders; 6) retaliation by staff for filing grievances; and 7) physical plant conditions. An offender may not file a grievance challenging 1) state or federal law; 2) court actions and decisions; 3) Indeterminate Sentence Review Board actions and decisions; 4) administrative segregation placement or retention; 5) classification/unit team decisions; 6) transfers; 7) disciplinary actions; and several other aspects of incarceration.
- 5. The OGP provides a wide range of remedies available to inmates. These remedies are outlined in OGP 015 and include 1) restitution of property or funds; 2) correction of records; 3) administrative actions; 4) agreement by department officials to remedy an objectionable condition within a reasonable time; and 5) a change in a local or department policy or procedure.
  - 6. The grievance procedure consists of four levels of review:

Level 0 - Complaint or informal level. The grievance coordinator at the prison receives a written complaint from an offender on an issue about which the offender wishes to pursue a formal grievance. At this complaint level, the grievance coordinator pursues informal resolution, returns the complaint to the offender for rewriting, returns the complaint to the offender requesting additional information, or accepts the complaint and processes it as a formal grievance. Routine and emergency complaints accepted as formal grievances begin at Level I, complaints alleging staff misconduct are initiated at Level II.

Level I - Grievances against policy, procedure, or other offenders, and grievances processed as emergencies. The local grievance coordinator is the respondent at this level.

TAR

Level II - Appeal. Offenders may appeal Level I grievances to this level. Staff conduct grievances are initiated at this level. All appeals and initial grievances received at Level II are investigated, with the prison superintendent being the respondent.

Level III - Appeal. Offenders may appeal all Level II responses except emergency grievances to Department headquarters in Turnwater, where they are reinvestigated. Administrators are the respondents.

- 7. James Wilkinson, DOC # 717946, is a DOC inmate currently incarcerated at the McNeil Island Corrections Center (MICC) in Steilacoom, Washington. Mr. Wilkinson was first admitted to the DOC in March, 1995.
- 8. The DOC's grievance system is well known to inmates; currently over 20,000 grievances are filed per year system wide. Mr. Wilkinson is well aware of the grievance system in the DOC as he has filed approximately 22 separate grievances since June 1996. A true and correct copy of Mr. Wilkinson's grievance history is attached to this declaration as Attachment A.
- 9. It is my understanding that Mr. Wilkinson's complaint raises claims pertaining to an alleged practice of CBCC making race conscious housing decisions. Institutions' practices are grievable issues under the DOC's grievance system regardless of whether they are formalized in policy.
- 10. I have reviewed DOC's official grievance records concerning Mr. Wilkinson and have determined that he has never filed a grievance related to this issue.

I declare under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

EXECUTED this _____ day of March, 2007, at Tumwater, Washington.
